WHEREAS, Upon the claim being made that said order is alleged to be in violation of the pledges and obligations of the United States contained in sundry treaties heretofore entered into with the Indian tribes or bands, occupants of said reservation, and that further execution of said order will not only occasion much distress and suffering to the peaceable Indians, but retard the work of their civilization and endanger among them a distrust of the National government, I have determined, after careful examination of the several treaties, acts of Congress and other official data bearing on the subject, aided and assisted therein by advice and opinion of the Attorney-General of the United States, duly rendered in that behalf, that the lands so proposed to be restored to the public domain by the said executive order of February 27, 1885, are included as existing in the Indian reservations on the east bank of the Missouri river by the terms of the second article of the treaty with the Sioux Indians, concluded April 29, 1868, and that, consequently, being treaty reservations, the executive was the lawful power to restore them to the public domain by said executive order, which, is, therefore, deemed and considered to be wholly inoperative and void; and,

WHEREAS, The laws of the United States provide for the removal of all persons residing or being found upon Indian lands and territory, without the permission expressly and legally obtained of the Interior Department. Now, therefore, to maintain inviolate the solemn pledges and plighted faith of the government, as given in the treaties in question, and for the purpose of properly protecting the interests of the Indian tribes as well as the United States in the premises, and to the end that no person or persons may be induced to enter upon the said lands, where they will not be allowed to remain without the permission aforesaid, I Grover Cleveland, President of the United States, do hereby declare and proclaim the said executive order of February 27, 1885, to be in contravention of the treaty obligations of the United States with the Sioux tribe of Indians, and, therefore, to be inoperative and of no effect. And I do further declare, that the lands intended to be embraced therein are existing Indian reservations, and as such available for Indian purchases alone, and subject to the Indian intercourse and acts of the United States.

I do further warn and admonish all and every person or persons now in the occupation of said lands, under color of said executive orders, and all such person or persons as are intending or preparing to enter and settle upon the same, that they will neither be permitted to remain or enter upon said lands, and such persons as are already there are hereby required to vacate and remove therefrom, with their effects, within sixty days from the date hereof, and in case of non-compliance with this proclamation, the laws and treaties of the United States, and this admonition and warning, be not of sufficient effect for the purposes and intentions as herein declared, all the power of the government will be employed to carry into proper execution the treaties and laws of the United States herein referred to.

In testimony whereof, I hereunto set my hand and cause the seal of the United States to be affixed.

Done at the city of Washington, this 17th day of April, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-five, and of the independence of the United States of America the one hundred and ninth.

Patti Sick.

CHICAGO, April 17.—Madame Adelina Patti has written Col. Mapleson announcing that she will be unable to fulfill her New York and Boston engagements, owing to ill health and the imperative orders of her physicians to cease work for several weeks. To a representative of the Associated Press this morning, she said she had felt the necessity of retiring for a time, and this had been forcibly impressed upon her by reason of her heavy work in this city. She would, therefore, obey her physicians, and would sail at once for England from New York. Incidentally she remarked that her divorce from De Caux was absolute, and that she could now sing in France without having her salary attached under her nuptial contract. She expects to remain in her castle in Wales for several months, and then expects to sing in London, Paris, and possibly St. Petersburg. The divorce proceedings have been dragging for years, and Madame Patti stated that they involved directly on her part fully half a million francs. To-night's performance, therefore, concludes her American engagement, she having sung twelve times, receiving $108,000. (?)

Mr. H. E. Grow:
Sir—For seven years, through a rheumatic affection, I was partially and might say entirely deprived of the use and benefit of my right arm and its muscular members. By a true observation of your system of treatment I have been restored to a healthy action of the diseased member and also relieved of a persistent and continual headache, the result, as I think, of the first complaint.
Very Respectfully,
BRIGHTON RIDGE.

Mr. H. E. Grow:
Dear Sir—This is to certify, that by your system of treatment of weak eye I have lost one by disease, catarrh of the head and other sympathetic diseases, I have experienced immediate and permanent relief, and recommend your system of treatment as effective and curative. There is no humbug about it, and needs but a trial to produce the relief demanded and expected.

Mr. H. E. Grow:
Dear Sir—I had suffered with rheumatism for four months, and it settled in my left arm, causing it to shrink and become paralyzed, and I had lost the use of it for three months, and I have taken ten of your treatments and have been restored to my health.
Very Gratefully,
ELIZABETH BOYD.

Dear Sir—I am very grateful to you in behalf of my son, who through your treatment is made well, having suffered for years with lameness in one leg, through the contraction of the cords. And for the benefit of the public, please make it known.
Yours Truly,
